Subject: - VIOLATION OF PPRA RULES 2004.

Reference: - Your kind Letter No. Dir(A&F)/SPPRA/3-25/08-09/1453 dated 20-04-2009.

It is submitted that there is no violation of PPRA Rule 13 rule 2004, there is clear 15 days period. The tenders are open for every body to see. The Tender notice has been ^{published} ~~polished~~ in the Daily News Papers Mehran Dated. ¹³ ~~15~~-04-2009 and the last date of received tenders is 28-04-2009 upto 12 after noon and opened on the same day before the bidders at 1:00 PM.
Hence there is no ambiguity.

Furthered the objection pointed out at Para (II) of the violation of rule 23(5) is also incorrect. This office has not demand 3000 cost of the tender fee (copy of Dali Mehran News paper is enclosed). There is no fee / cost of tender demanded. Hence no violation of the rules of 23(5).

It is further submitted that the quantity how much items will be purchased / announced after opening the Tenders is not violation. There is fair and open Competition in the bid, which does not violate in any term of rules. There is competition of rate of each item.

After acceptances of lowest tender in open competition. The competent authority will decide how much quantity will be purchased from the availability of funds.

It is therefore requested that there is no any violation of PPRA Rule 13 & 23(5) and as such there is no necessity of Re-call or Corrigendum which will be the un-necessary wastage of Government money / time on the Recall advertisement.
