The YDA boycott continued the second consecutive day as more hospitals. The medical staff boycotted all OPDs and forced the closure of all functions at the Services Hospital, including the emergency ward. Their action resulted in the suffering of thousands who come to the government hospital from across Punjab.

Talking to the media, YDA representatives, including Dr Hamid Butt and others,

...ignation, otherwise doctors will not allow the Services Hospital to resume its activity," he further stated.

However, late on Wednesday night, the doctors announced emergency services would resume at Services Hospital, while OPDs would remain closed.

The incident occurred on Monday night when the anti-corruption department raided the Services Hospital to arrest Dr Atif, who was allegedly involved in corruption

However, his peers offered serious resistance to the arrest. They even damaged vehicles of the authorities, who had to leave the medical facility without completing the arrest.

Following the incident, large numbers of doctors gathered outside the emer-

...call for a province-wide shut down of OPDs at all hospitals and a complete strike at the Services Hospital, including the emergency ward.

Meanwhile, the health department requested doctors to open the emergency ward in the larger interest of the public.

On Tuesday, the few police personnel along and security guards deployed at the main gate of the Services Hospital said patients entered the premises only to find that the facilities were closed.

...patients at a time, was also completely empty.

A time of unrest

Meanwhile, a group of nurses at the Sheikh Zayed Hospital also protested against the hospital administration. They accused a doctor of slapping a nurse over a petty issue. They warned that not a single one of them would return to their jobs unless the doctor who was involved. However, after about half an hour, they returned to duties.

Deputy Secretary of the Punjab Higher Education Department (HED). However, she has applied for six months leave before joining the department. The Express Tribune has learnt. According to details, Mumtaz's appointment to the HED was made by the Services and General Administration Department (S&GAD) on Tuesday. However, even before the HED was notified and Ayesha Mumtaz took charge of her position, she applied for six months leave. According to an official of the department, Ayesha Mumtaz cited personal reasons for the leave. Her application had been received by the department. OUR CORRESPONDENT

Asks govt response to Saeed detention

...ing JuD.

On January 31st this year, the provincial government of Punjab had placed JuD chief Hafiz Muhammad Saeed and four other party leaders under house arrest after a letter was issued by the interior ministry.

...to the UN Security Council Resolution 1267.

A number of JuD and Falah-e-Insaniat Foundation pamphlets have also been made part of the petition which highlighted the organisation's volunteer work in different parts of the country, according to the notification putting them under detention.

...On January 31st, the provincial govt placed JuD chief Hafiz Saeed and four other party leaders under house arrest

...It has also stated its other philanthropic works including rescue work in the Mall Road suicide blast.

In 2008, India accused the JuD chief for masterminding the 2008 Mumbai attacks, bringing Islamabad and New Delhi to the brink of a war. At least 166 people including tourists were killed by 10 armed men who went on a rampage that included attacks on two luxury hotels, a Jewish centre, and a train station.

...The said letter that was issued to the provincial government on January 29 said that as per the UN Security Council sanctions, the two organisations namely JuD and Falah-e-Insaniat Foundation (FIF), which is the public welfare arm of JuD, both have been put on the watch list and listed in the second schedule of the Anti-Terrorism Act.

The ministry of interior, on January 27, intimated that JuD and FIF are engaged in activities that could be prejudicial to peace and security, and are in violation of Pakistan's obligations

...Saeed has repeatedly denied the allegations and has distanced himself from the Lashkar-e-Taiba (LeT), a banned militant group in Pakistan that India blames for the incident.

Saeed was put under house arrest soon after the Mumbai attacks but was released on court orders in June 2009.

DEPOLITICISATION PTI submits police bill at assembly secretariat

LAHORE The Pakistani Tehreek-e-Insaf (PTI) submitted the Police Bill 2017 to the Punjab Assembly Secretariat on Wednesday to empower the force and ensure it is a non-political institution.

A police board, comprising eight officials, was established and it will send its recommendations to senior officials to prepare a strategy for the improvement of the force's performance.

The bill suggested the establishment of public liaison councils at the UC level. It said these bodies should comprise elected representatives and respected members of society.

The party said the objective of the bill was to halt political intervention in the police's workings and empower the department.

After the submission of the bill, opposition leader Mian Mehmoodur Rasheed told the media that the legislation should not be politicised. He added the approval of this bill was in the interest of common people and the police as an institution. The PTI leader continued that his party was willing to talk to all other political forces, including PML-N, to bring the bill into law.

Zero-tolerance policy Shehbaz vows to fight corruption to the end

LAHORE Punjab Chief Minister Shehbaz Sharif has said the PML-N government has adopted a zero-tolerance policy towards dishonesty and Pakistan's ranking in the fight against corruption has improved globally.

The CM expressed these views while talking to the members of the provincial assembly who called on him

Wednesday. "The development projects of PML-N speak volumes of transparency and the high standards we have followed. We have ensured the efficient use of resources and public money," the chief minister said.

Shehbaz said past leaders plundered the national resources ruthlessly and 'filled their pockets' under the cover of development projects. "Their wrong poli-
