next strategy.

While talking to The Express Tribune, PTI central leader Imran Ismail said that he is not aware of any such movements. Party affairs should be discussed in party meetings, he said, adding that the PTI will issue a show-cause notice to Qureshi for violating party rules and making a party within the party.

Ismail further said that currently, the PTI in Karachi is being run by a taskforce formed by party chairperson Imran Khan that consists of Alvi, Ismail, Ali Zaidi, Tariq Shafi and Naqvi. Will the senior leadership of the party will look into this matter and solve it? Ismail said that the party is currently focusing on the Panama Papers issue.

"Once we are through, then the party chairperson will look into the matter," he said.

Subhan Ali Sahil, another former PTI Karachi president, said the party has been hijacked by a few members and party workers such as Qureshi find it suffocating working with people who do not even consult other leaders for important decisions. Sahil urged Khan to take notice of the party situation in the city.
