Govt gets more ne to furnish list f officials with ual citizenship

ISLAMABAD: Chief Justice Pakistan (CJP) Mian Sagib on Wednesday summoned a list of government employees holding dual nationalities. The establishment secretaries has been asked to furnish list in 15 days.

The three-judge bench, led by CJP Mian Sagib, was hearing a suo motu regarding judges and government officials holding dual nationality.

At the outset of court proceedings on Wednesday, the establishment secretary appeared before the court and informed the bench that the list had been received from two provinces. He said they were still waiting for details from some government departments. He pleaded with the bench for more time to compile a comprehensive report with names of all officials and government employees holding dual nationalities.

Action is to be taken against those who refused to provide details," Justice Nisar

The CJP said 20 minutes had submitted reports providing details of official nationalities, while 23 had yet to file reports. He wondered how a dual nationality holder could be a single country after giving allegiance to two different states. AGENCIES

Bodies of 11 Pakistanis killed in Libya boat tragedy brought home

ISLAMABAD: The bodies of 11 Pakistani citizens who died when a smuggler's boat capsized near Libya earlier this month were flown to Islamabad on Wednesday.

A Saudi Arabian Airlines plane carrying the bodies from Libya via Jeddah landed at Benazir International Airport in the evening. However, the relatives of the deceased, who had gathered at the air-port's cargo gate to collect the bodies of their loved ones, were reportedly mistreated by the airport staff. Ambulances, as well as media representatives, were also forbidden from getting past the airport gate. On February 2, it was reported that at least 90 people, believed to be migrants, had drowned after a boat sank near the coast of Libya in the Mediterranean Sea. AGENCIES
