Medi Urge (Pvt), Lahore has submitted two Bank guarantees amounting to Rs.9,950,000/- and Rs.330,000/- duly issued by Pakistan General Insurance Company Limited, which is un-acceptable under SPPRA Rules, hence the Procurement Committee did not accept them and disqualified M/S. Medi Urge due to submission of defective documents and unanimously accepted the bid amounting to Rs.950,000,000/- submitted by M/s. Neotec being lowest for procurement of the five mobile units (10 mobile hospitals) and Rs.159,574,800/- as operations and maintenance (O&M) for one year substantiated with bid security amounting to Rs.9,500,500/- vide Pay order No.00514835, dated 28.04.2017 and Pay Order No.00514834, dated 28.04.2017, amounting to Rs.1,595,748/- issued by Sindh Bank, Clifton Branch, Karachi (0302).

However the committee noticed that the provision for Procurement in PC1 for MDSBC units is Rs.850/- million whereas the lowest bid amount is Rs.100.00 million more than the available amount. The procurement Committee therefore directed the PA to approach Planning & Development Department for approval of accepting higher bid though lowest.

Meeting ended with vote of thanks and from chair.
