The woman who accused Atwahida Qaumi Movement (MQM) - Pakistan MNA Salman Mujahid Baloch of sexually assaulting and blackmailing her has refused to appear before South Investigations SP Farooq Awan, who is the investigation officer in a case registered by Baloch against her.

A total of three cases have been registered by the parties against each other. The initial case was registered by the MNA against the woman and her family at the Gulshan-e-Iqbal police station in January in which the MNA had accused her of cheating him. Later the woman murder the woman. "I will not appear before SP Farooq Awan," she told the media, demanding that another police officer be assigned the investigation. "Farooq Awan is a friend of Salman Mujahid Baloch and I do not believe that he will conduct a transparent inquiry."

When contacted, SP Awan confirmed his relations with the MNA. "Yes, I have relations with MNA Baloch but such relations do not matter in the investigation as it will be conducted only on merit," he said, adding that "if she wants to appear before another police officer, I do not have any objections".

by the woman indicating that she borrowed Rs4 million from him.

"I have registered a case against her for cheating and blackmailing."

Salman Mujahid Baloch

"They both [the woman and her brother] registered counter FIRs against me to blackmail me. I was the first to register case against them. Now they are blackmailing and defaming me," Baloch accused.

The woman, in the mean-try, she also accused the MNA of selling medicines which he got from Parliament's medical department. She demanded the National Accountability Bureau probe into the accounts of the MQM Pakistan leader and his family.

According to social activist Sarim Burney, who has taken up the issue, details and evidence provided by the woman were enough for the investigators to prove Baloch guilty. Meanwhile, police officials have denied any involvement in the media which said that the police had written a letter to the National Assembly speaker to seek his permission to arrest the MNA over his alleged involvement in the case.
