...ped him escape," asserted. On this revelation, I started locating the mastermind myself, and hired two informers to track him down," Zaman revealed. "On March 30, an informer told me that Shoaib had returned to the city and was present at an auto shop in FB Area Block 16 where he worked as a mechanic." Zaman said he called up the Jauharabad police and informed them about Shoaib. "A police team reached there and took him into custody."

...from a market. Giving him the benefit of doubt, the CPLC released him but we kept an eye on his movements," the SHO said. "But Shoaib managed to escape after his release." CPLC coordinator Muhammad Khalid when requested to verify the police claims clarified that the CPLC had no provision to arrest or release any suspect. "The CPLC East Zone assisted the Sharea Faisal police on technical grounds to trace those people who were using the snatched cell phones," Khalid said. "The CPLC took the Sharea Faisal police to the location from

...that the suspect had deceived the police with a fake identity. "When we arrested the members of Shoaib's gang and recovered a DVR which they had looted in their last robbery at Zaman's outlet in Gulshan-e-Iqbal near Disco Bakery, we had seen Shoaib in the footage," the SP said. Dr Ahmed has no words to justify his position when he was asked as to why police had not called the complainant of the case for the suspect's identification even though he had over 30 CCTV footages of robberies at his outlets.

...tion of traffic laws, road accidents remain a bane for Karachi and its citizens. Just a day earlier, on Sunday, a teenage girl and a toddler were fatally injured in an accident in the New Karachi area. Rescue officials said the girl, who was around 14 years old, was walking with the toddler by a roadside when a speeding vehicle veered off the road and ran them over. Officials said the teenager and the toddler both suffered extensive injuries and passed away on the spot. The driver of the vehicle managed to flee the scene and the car was impounded by the police. — Agencies
