One dead, 129 wounded in mosque attack in Libya's Benghazi

BENGHAZI. Twin bomb blasts struck a mosque in Benghazi, in eastern Libya on Friday, killing at least one person and wounding 129 in the latest attack to target worshippers in the city.

The explosions hit the mosque at the start of weekly prayers in Libya's second city, which lies 1,000 kilometres (620 miles) east of Tripoli, a security source told AFP.

In the wake of the blasts debris was left scattered across the floor of the mosque, with windows blown out and bloodstains smeared on the wall.

The security source said one bomb had been hidden in a coffin in the courtyard of the mosque and another in a shoe cabinet at the entrance.

One person was killed and 129 wounded, according to Moataz Trabelsi, spokesman for the health ministry of the parallel administration based in the east of the North African country.

The blasts follow twin car bombings outside a mosque in Benghazi after prayers on January 24 that left nearly 40 people dead.

There was no claim of responsibility for that attack, which underscored the ongoing chaos in the Benghazi region which is controlled by the forces of military strongman Khalifa Haftar.

Haftar, who opposes a UN-backed unity government based in Tripoli, announced Benghazi's "liberation" from jihadists in July last year after a three-year campaign, but sporadic violence has continued.

The United Nations mission in Libya condemned the latest "brutal bombings" and said the reports of civilian casualties were "deeply concerning".

"This heinous act should not provide a justification for revenge attacks. Prompt, impartial investigations should bring perpetrators to justice," the mission said on Twitter.—AFP schools and 5.3 million refugees in the Palestinian territories, Jordan, Lebanon and Syria. US Ambassador Nikki Haley last month said the United States would not provide aid to the Palestinians until they agree "to come back to the negotiation table" and reach a peace deal with Israel. "The US has not yet explained to us the rationale behind its decision on the $60 million," Mulrean said, adding that Washington had not presented any concerns about reforms.

In an interview to Voice of America, Haley said UNRWA needed to be reformed, because they consider "any Palestinian as a refugee" and "what they're teaching in schools is not necessarily the right way to have things run." UNRWA has been repeatedly accused of promoting anti-Israel sentiment in schools, a charge it has flatly rejected.

US ambassador attacks leftwing Israeli newspaper

OCCUPIED JERUSALEM: The American ambassador to Israel attacked an Israeli leftwing newspaper Friday, questioning whether it had any "dignity" after a vitriolic column.

The quarrel erupted after Haaretz newspaper criticised US Ambassador David Friedman, personally selected by President Donald Trump, for his support of settlements in the occupied Palestinian territories.

In the wake of the murder of an Israeli rabbi and father of four from the Har Bracha settlement on Monday, Friedman tweeted that he had provided an ambulance for the community 20 years ago.

Friedman then criticised Palestinian "leaders" for praising the killing, although Palestinian president Mahmud Abbas said nothing about it.

In response Haaretz, which opposes settlement building in the Palestinian territories, ran a column by commentator Gideon Levy saying that "with Friedman's ambulance or without it, Har Bracha (literally, 'Mountain of Blessing') is a mountain of curses."

It accused Friedman, who was Trump's personal lawyer before being confirmed as ambassador in May 2017, of "encouraging and funding war crimes, and violations of international law". —AFP

Police find no sign of torture

ISLAMABAD

A couple was found dead on Wednesday in the room of a Sector F-10/4 guest house they had booked for an overnight stay.

According to police, a 60-year-old man and a 25-year-old woman were found dead at A1 Guest House under mysterious circumstances.

A three-quarter empty bottle and glasses with liquor were found on the table. Both the bodies were on the bed with their feet on the ground.

It seemed as if they were sitting on the bed, consumed something and lay backwards, so that the upper body was on the bed and feet on the floor.

The manager of the guest house told police that the Aftab Ahmed, an ophthalmologist, had come Tuesday evening with the woman and booked a room for a night.

However, on Wednesday morning they did not come out for the breakfast. By afternoon, the manager grew impatient and banged
