Corporal punishment claims boy's life

By Our Correspondent

DERA MURAD JAMALI: A student of Class-III on Friday lost his life reportedly because of corporal punishment by his teacher. Syed Nazar Shah, the teacher, was taken into custody.

Ten-year-old Amanullah Solangi went to Government Primary School in Shah Baig village of Nasirabad district. According to sources, he was subjected to severe beating by Mr Shah over some mistake. The boy was taken to hospital where he died. The medics confirmed Solangi had serious wounds on his body.

Villagers placed the body on the main Quetta-Sukkur Highway and held a protest against the teacher. They raised slogans and demanded the teacher's arrest. Traffic remained disrupted for quite some time.

The protest was called off after the local administration assured the grieving family that action would be taken against the teacher and school.

Jindal's Pakistan trip mystery surprise visit to greet Mr Sharif on his birthday and attend his granddaughter's wedding.

"Why is the government quiet over Jindal's visit?" asked PPP's Nafeesa Shah during the committee's meeting.

There was no formal press statement by the PM Office on Mr Jindal's meeting with Mr Sharif even though it regularly issues press releases on the prime minister's engagements with business delegations.

Ms Nawaz, however, confirmed the trip in a tweet as she rejected its description as 'secret' by some of the media outlets. "Mr Jindal is an old friend of the Prime Minister. Nothing 'secret' about the meeting & should not be blown out of proportion," she had tweeted after the issue hit headlines a day after the Indian businessman toured Pakistan.

Pakistan Tehreek Insaf's Shireen Mazari questioned as to how Mr Jindal visited Murree, when his visa was restricted for Islamabad and Lahore only.

"If Jindal had come on a private visit, why did FO officials receive him?" Ms Mazari further asked.

Interested bidders should submit two separate envelopes containing financial proposals to avoid any confusion. One envelope for Demand Draft in favor of the bid security equivalent to two per cent of the total bid amount.
