main suspended till the completion of an inquiry into the matter.

The deputy inspector general of jails, Qazi Nazeer, will be heading the investigation ordered into the death of the inmate allegedly due to torture by jail officials.

The handout quoted the provincial law and prisons minister as saying that justice would surely be done to the aggrieved family members of the deceased inmate.

He said that the jail administration could not be given permission at any cost to torture on prison inmates.

Abbas and Khan are accused of transferring dozens of plots to different parties on the basis of fake documents. The accused had also converted residential plots in the Gulistan-e-Jauhar locality into commercial plots.

The former KDA chief is also accused of minting billions of rupees by setting up illegal marriage halls and filling stations.

The investigating officer said Abbas, the key accused, was involved in misusing his authority as the KDA's director general to make large sums of money by auctioning government lands and plots. His actions are said to have incurred losses of Rs385 million to the national exchequer.

The Federal Investigation Agency (FIA) had arrested Abbas on September 16 last year over charges of fraud. He was accused of obtaining two Pakistani passports through

The additional district and sessions judge (South) convicted and awarded life terms to two Muttahida Qaumi Movement activists (now said to be members of the London faction of the party) for killing a lawyer in 2010.

According to the prosecution, the convicts, Mansoor alias Lara and Haider Ali, had been directed by an MQM-London leader, Altaf alias Sultan, to kill Advocate Sardar Zulfiqar. The two had been paid Rs500,000 for committing the murder.

Earlier, state attorney Abdul Razzaq Gujjar tendered his arguments and asked the court to announce the capital punishment for the killers. The court however sentenced the culprits to life imprisonment.

The murder case was registered at the Garden police station.

One of the accused, Altaf alias Sultan, has been absconding and the court has declared him a proclaimed offender.
