terms Pakistan's defeat in 1965 through public eye because the war.

These views were expressed by sources within the defence establishment while talking with The News.

The sources took exception to the self-proclaimed 'Sachai' (truthfulness) of the analyst who has tried to distort history and put the things in a totally wrong perspective.

The analyst has just a limited, myopic understanding of the dynamics of 1965 war as well as its background, say the sources adding further, "War and war strategy, as such, just can't be the forte of people try-

Viewpoint

Pakistan masses were fully alive and in complete consonance with the armed forces' strategies, prioritization and operational preparedness. The people of Pakistan and the armed forces stood on one pedestal with the same views about the adversary and its aggressive, ignoble designs and malice. The malice was quite evident from just one arrogant observation and claim of India's
