Reference Para-17/ante.

21. It is submitted that as per approval vide Para-17/ante, this department forwarded 60 days extension in bid validity to Sindh Public Procurement Regulatory Authority Karachi vide letter dated: 09th August, 2016 (Page-242/Corr.). After technical evaluation, financial bids of Surgical & X-Ray tenders were opened on: 30.07.2016 and Medicines tender on: 09.08.2016. After completion all proceedings by the Procurement Committee, BER were deposited to Sindh Public Procurement Regulatory Authority on 29th September, 2016 for hoisting on website. According to SPP Rules 2010, the approved Rate Contract List will be circulated after 07 days from the date of hoisting.

22. It is pointed out that extended bid validity will be expired on 10th October, 2016 and there will be a chance to expire the extended bid validity. It is pertinent to mention here that Rule 38(4) clearly allows extension in bid validity upto original period of bid validity which is 90 days.

23. It is therefore proposed that an extension of more 30 days may be accorded to complete the process within the extended time as allowed in SPPRA Rules. so that a request may be sent to all the bidders to extend their bid validity upto 10th November, accordingly.

24. Submitted for kind perusal and orders please.

Section Officer, PM&I

25. DS (Admn-I/PM&I)

The facts ~~shown~~ by office are worth considering. office has received bid documents to SPPRA on 29th September, 2016 for hoisting which is yet to be hoisted probably on Monday 2nd October, 2016 subject to having no objection by SPPRA. Moreover, financial bid of Hepatitis items has recently been opened and documents are under process for signature of the member which may take further two or three days. Extended bid validity is being expired on 10th October, 2016. Hence, considering the facts, re-extension is highly essential.

26 Earlier extension was made for 60 days and SPPKA rule 38(4) provides that bid validity is to be extended original period of bid validity i.e. 90 days. Hence, we have only option for 30 days additional extension of 30 days.

27 To be on safe side, if agreed to, 20 days instead of 30 days extension may be allowed for smooth finalization of procurement process.
