the virus from spreading, she said, advising that those affected by flu, fever and cough should cover their mouths while sneezing or coughing and wash their hands repeatedly.

"Influenza germs most commonly spread through the hands," she warned, adding that the virus has been prevalent in all parts of the world since 2009. She stressed on the need to adopt preventative measures to check the spread of the virus, saying that prevention rather than fear can help us fight

Jamali and Civil Hospital Karachi Medical Superintendent Dr M Tauseef told Express News that dedicated isolation units for the treatment of the virus have been set up at their hospitals.

Emergency meeting

After reports of swine flu cases in Karachi, the health department also held a meeting, presided over by Health Secretary Dr Fazalullah Pechuho, with representatives of the World Health Organisation.

strategy will soon be formulated with the health department. Stressing on the importance of being vaccinated against swine flu, Dr Shaikh said anti-swine flu vaccines are easily available in the market. The vaccines cost between Rs400 and Rs450 and help protect against the disease for a year.

The provincial health department has already issued instructions regarding management of swine flu. The contagious virus spreads during winters and pregnant screen the highly contagious the virus, said Solangi, adding that "The populations most prone to the virus include infants, pregnant women and the elderly. Barring Jinnah and Civil home hospitals, no public hospital has facilities for treatment of the fatal influenza virus," he said.

Call for stopping use of antibiotics

OUR CORRESPONDENT
KARACHI

Senior consultant at the World Health Organisation Dr Nizam Damani has called for stopping unnecessary use of antibiotics by medical practitioners as the community at large may soon develop resistance against antibiotics with no alternative remedy in the near future.

He was speaking at a two-day seminar on infection prevention and control organised by the Sindh Institute of Urology and Transplantation on Thursday.

Report sought on inquiry against former chief secretary

OUR CORRESPONDENT
KARACHI

The Sindh High Court (SHC) sought on Thursday a report regarding decision by the National Accountability Bureau (NAB) on filing a reference against former Sindh chief secretary in a case related to illegal regularisation of six acres of land.

Headed by SHC Chief Justice Ahmed Ali M Sheikh, a two-judge bench directed the NAB special prosecutor to submit a progress report in this regard by February 8.

Former chief secretary Muhammad Siddique Memon has been on interim pre-arrest ball since August 2015 as the federal anti-graft watchdog launched an inquiry against him into alleged illegal allotment and regularisation of a six-acre of land for residential and commercial purposes in Sector 52-A Corridor of Scheme 33 in Karachi.

According to Memon's lawyer, NAB had taken cognisance of allotment and regularisation of the land in question to Mohammad Ayub. This allotment was later cancelled. However, it was regularised on Ayub's application on January 2008 by a committee headed by a retired judge of the high court, the lawyer added.

The court was informed that the petitioner had no connection with the original allotment as he was not a member of the lands committee which regularised the aforesaid allotment since he was posted as land utilisation secretary afterwards.

The SHC has directed the NAB prosecutor time and again to submit a progress report into the inquiry. On Thursday, the prosecutor maintained that the inquiry against the petitioner had been completed and relevant documents had been sent to
