TO RESOLVE ISSUE OF commercial markets

People coming for shopping need car parking, streetlights, clean drinking water and public bathrooms

ISLAMABAD

Business community on Friday stressed upon Capital Development Authority (CDA) to focus on resolving the key issues faced in different markets of capital city.

They demanded provision of all street lights and redesigning of car parking for expansion as well as its recarpeting to facilitate the visitors and promote trade and business activities.

A delegation of Islamabad Chamber of Commerce and Industry led by its President Sheikh Amir Waheed visited F-6, Islamabad and congratulated the newly elected President Shehzad Shabbir Abbasi, General Secretary Muhammad Hussain, and other office bearers of Traders Welfare Association of Super Market, a press release said. Speaking on the occasion, President ICCI Sheikh Amir Waheed said Super Market was located in a posh area of Islamabad where foreign diplomats, foreign nationals and other high profile dignitaries frequently visited for shopping.

He assured the newly elected office bearers that the ICCI would fully cooperate with the association in its endeavors aimed at better development of the market and bringing it on a par with well-developed markets of the region.

In his welcome address, Muhammad Hussain thanked the ICCI delegation for visiting their market to congratulate the newly elected office bearers, which was a source of encouragement for them. Highlighting the key issues of Super Market, he said there was no filtration plant in the market due to which the traders and residents of the area were deprived of clean drinking water.

Super Market has no filtration plant due to which the traders and residents of the area are deprived of clean drinking water

He said current car parking had become insufficient and urged that CDA should redesign the parking to expand it and arrange its recarpeting and restore all streetlights. He assured that the association would fully support the ICCI in its efforts for resolving key issues of the local business community. AFP

Register case against court clerks

OUR CORRESPONDENT

ISLAMABAD: Attorney General's court (ATC) has directed the Federal Investigation Agency (FIA) to register a criminal case against two officials performing duties at ATC and Environmental Protection Tribunal over their alleged involvement and confession in a corruption scandal.

ATC Judge Shahrukh Arjumand ordered FIA to register case against a lower division clerk in ATC, Masood Ahmad, and an upper division clerk deployed in Environmental Protection Tribunal, Muhammad Naem, for putting fake signatures of another ATC judge on cheques and bills for the release of over Rs700,000.

In a letter addressed to the director general FIA, the court through its 'Nazir' has sought immediate registration of a criminal case against the culprits and sent relevant documents comprising 87 pages to the FIA.
