Minister for National Health Services Saira Afzal Tarar on Thursday expressed satisfaction over the significant progress in checking the spread of polio and directed the concerned departments to redouble their efforts to meet the remaining challenges to rid the country of the crippling disease.

"The country reported the lowest-ever polio toll in its history during 2017," the minister said while chairing a high-level meeting to review Pakistan's polio situation.

She directed to engage the leadership of Balochistan to meet specific challenges of the polio campaign and strengthen cross-border collaboration with Afghanistan in this regard, said a press release.

The minister stressed upon the critical importance of sustainability of resources to
