1.0 Introduction

The basic aim of the pre-qualification is intended to eliminate, early in procurement proceedings, Constructors that are not suitably qualified to perform the contract. The pre-qualification specifically means selection of competent bidders prior to issuance of the invitations to bid. It is required for large and complex civil works contracts, turnkey contracts, and contracts for the fabrication of expensive and technically complex plant and equipment. This is to ensure that only firms with appropriate experience, a proven track record, and necessary annual turnover and that, can provide all the equipment required in a timely manner and will be only invited to submit bids. Thus assessment by an implementing agency of the suitability of firms to carry out a particular contract prior to being invited to submit a bid is a bid process called prequalification.
