and industry of Port Qasim.

This fact was stated by him Monday in a press release of the Association after non emergence of any fruitful results and ignorance of a constitution of a specific Committee comprising officials of PQA Board and BQATI to resolve the prolonged problems of complainants.

He said the BQATI has made a detailed study about the unjustified water charges of Port Qasim Authority, which are more exorbitant than the actual rates of Karachi Water and Sewerage Board.-NNI

Evening clinic at NICVD

KARACHI: National Institute of Cardiovascular Diseases (NICVD) will start its evening private patients clinic for white collar citizens from today. Executive Director of NICVD, Prof. Khan Shahrzaman told journalists on Monday that the initiative is meant to cater to the cardiac care needs of mid-income groups.

"They not only are unable to visit hospitals in the morning hours, due to job constraints, and also generally can not afford to pay the consultant's fee in their private clinics," he said.

"NICVD will charge a nominal fee of Rs.600 that includes consultancy fees, ECG and hospital services," said the NICVD chief in reply to a question. The evening clinic, to be conducted by senior cardiologists and cardiac surgeons of NICVD, for three hours on every working day, initially between 5 p.m to 8 p.m. would also focus on employees of companies as Pakistan Petroleum Ltd, Pakistan International Airlines etc.

"The income generated from this clinic will be utilized for the treatment of non-affording general ward patient," said Dr. Khan Shah Zaman. This will also enable NICVD to make optimum use of the facilities that are not be used after official working hours," he said and referred to ECHO and ETT as well other important gadgets.-APP
