checking the submitted bid found uncompleted/unfilled rates for various items. As such, the bid amount stands Rs.221,697,505/- and as per SPPRA Rules and Regulations it will be considered as major deviation in bid that will be treated as rejected. (Copy of the letter No. PC(SAF)/SALU/KHP/36 dated: 17.3.2017 is attached as Annexure-II).

That in response to the Project Coordinator (SAF) letter quoted above, M/s Kashif Constructors replied vide his letter No.KC/PC/SALU/1316 dated: 20.03.2017 (Annexure-III) that the unfilling rates in the submitted bid by his firm were left by mistake and in hurry. So, if the work will award to my firm then I will charged the rates against left or uncompleted parts of the bid. And if his bid will not considered for further bidding process or in evaluation of bid due to filled uncompleted scope of bid then he assured that no any claim will be stand against the University from our joint venture firms.

After due deliberations, discussions and reviewing all the documents, the Procurement Committee concluded that:

1. That after the arithmetic checking done by M/s. IDG Consultant, Karachi, the position of bids of Package #1 of the responsive bidders are as under:

S.No.	Contractor's Name	Total Quoted Bid Amount	Corrected Bid Amount after arithmetical checking (Rs.)
1	M/s. G.M. Enterprise	=228,434,480/-	=228,219,159/-
2	M/s. Kashif Constructors	=25,000,000/=	=221,697,505/-

2. From the reply of the Contractor M/s Kashif Constructor Karachi, it has been observed that the Contractor (M/s. Kashif) has not shown his willingness to work, which is in contradiction with the NIT issued by the Procuring Agency (Annexure-IV) as well as the SPPRA Rules Article No: 7.6 / B (h) which states as under:

“Completeness of Bid: Unless the bidding documents have specifically allowed, bids not offering all of the required items should ordinarily be considered non-responsive. However, under works contracts, a rate or price shall be entered against each item in the priced Bill of Quantities, whether quantities are stated or not. The cost of items against which contractor will have failed to enter rate or price shall be deemed to be covered by other rates and prices entered in the preamble of Bill of Quantities. No separate payment will be made for those items”.
