'Suo moto action urged on sugarcane growers' plights'

By Staff Reporter

KARACHI: "Mighty sugar mills mafia of Sindh has become a curse for the poor sugarcane growers of the province, while shameless patronizing of this mafia by the provincial rulers is highly regrettable," said Pasban-e-Pakistan President Altaf Shakoor here yesterday.

He said it is an open secret now that who actually owns and runs the monopoly of sugar mills in Sindh province. He said as per law the cane commissioner is empowered to get the sugarcane crushing season started in the month of November, but to exploit the cane growers every year this season it started very late.

Moreover, the provincial government also showers the sugar miller mafia with different subsidies from the taxpayers' money, charged Pasban leader, which shows how the miller mafia of Sindh is overtly and covertly patronized by the provincial government.

Altaf Shakoor strongly condemned the baton charge on hapless growers including women and children and their arrests. He demanded their immediate and unconditional release.
