The special prosecutor, started turning around, annoyed Justice Qaz. The matter of concern is being run. He said judges have the responsibility so that cases come now the judges have of government department should they work for Justice Qazi said he would do the job of judge. "It is the fault of judges to the government law they excused them was prepared."

He said that the salaries come from lawyers don't prep-journments and the Journment applicati prolong and this was cases were pending

Justice Dost remarked that a private litigant is not a company, but the law departments are not people. He asked the court whether the court had not appended its decision with the appeal. The court should have considered the department before the case is adjourned. Not

The Supreme Court on Friday expressed annoyance over lethargic arguments presented by the National Accountability Bureau (NAB) lawyer during the hearing of a case involving a housing society.

A three-member Supreme Court bench headed by Justice Dost Muhammad Khan heard the NAB appeal against a housing society, whose owners committed millions of rupees fraud.

The housing society in Lahore collected millions of rupees from 2,000 people but did not allot plots to them. Some applicants had approached the NAB against the housing society. The NAB arrested a member of the housing society Arshad Warraich. He entered into a plea bargain with the NAB and returned Rs5.6 million out of Rs10 million. After the plea bargain, he was released. The Lahore High Court also acquitted him. The NAB filed an appeal against the LHC verdict in the Supreme Court.

Special Prosecutor NAB Ali Imran told the court that facts of the case were not presented correctly before the LHC, therefore, the accused was acquitted.

Justice Qazi Faez Isa asked him to show the application of the plea bargain and point out from the record which facts were incorrect. "Where it is written that the accused had not
