PM's step to help promote country's exports

RECORD REPORT
LAHORE: The Lahore Chamber of Commerce and Industry on Saturday welcomed Minister Nawaz Sharif's move of zero-rated sales tax for export sector to facilitate export-oriented sectors. LCCI office-bearers; President Sheikh Mohammad Siddique, Senior Vice President Saeed Hyder and Vice President Saeed in their joint statement said that the step would go a long way and help promote country's exports which are stagnating since long. The prime minister's announcement is an ample proof of the government's move to bring economy back on rails, they has been reinforced through business-friendly policies of the government. They said that zero-rated sales tax regime for exporters would certainly bring down the industrial cost of doing-business and Pakistani products would be able to win their due share in the international market. They said that this initiative of the government would encourage business doing people to supplement the government endeavours aimed at economic revival of the country. The Lahore Chamber hoped that zero-rated sales tax regime for export-oriented industry would give a jump-start to the national exports, would give expansion to the industrial sector and would generate employment opportunities for the natives. Private sector of the country is backbone of the economy and economic stability would remain a dream until and unless issues being faced by the business community are not solved, they added.

They said that it would boost not only local business but would also give a good message to the foreign investors. They also hailed the government efforts for economic growth, saying that confidence in business community to invest in diverse economic fields

National holiday

Ombudsman's office summons complainant

RECORD REPORT
ISLAMABAD: Federal Ombudsman Secretariat for Action against Harassment of Women at Workplace Islamabad has summoned a complainant in a matter on a national holiday (February 05, 2016). Farhat Qudsee, Head of Department, Pak Korean Electronics Technology Institute (PKETI), Karachi had filed a complaint No 1(240)/2016. (Reg) against Federal Ombudsman Textile Industry and Services under the "Protection against Harassment of Women at Workplace Act 2010". Col Khamis Khan Panni, the Consultant/Registrar of the Ombudsperson Secretariat, had issued a letter to the complainant on February 05, 2016 saying, "You are required to appear in person for hearing before the Federal Ombudsman on February 05, 2016 at 10:00 AM." The complainant was not able to appear before the office on February 05 which is a public holiday - the Kashmir Solidarity Day. She said that she was also unable to reach Islamabad from Karachi due to strike of PIA employees. Later on February 09, 2016, the Ombudsman's office dismissed her complaint on grounds of non-prosecution. According to order sheet of the case, "complainant called absent. Now its 12:15 Pm. Complaint is hereby dismissed for non-prosecution". The complainant alleged that Panni had shared her complaint's contents illegally with defending parties and also attempted to persuade her to withdraw complaint and file it in Karachi.
