Atmosphere conducive for investment in Karachi

KARACHI: Governor Sindh Dr. Ishrat ul Ebad Khan has said that Karachi has very unique strategic importance with regards to its location, human resources and investment opportunities and this is the reason its instability is bound to create an adverse effect on the entire region.

This he said while speaking with the foreign students and faculty members of Command and Staff College Quetta here Friday at Governor House.

He said that Karachi is bigger than 80 countries in respect of population and as such its problems are greater in magnitude.

People from all sections and linguistic groups live in Karachi due to which its issues are variable and totally different in nature and these problems also contribute in creating ethnic, sectarian and linguistic rifts amongst Karachiites, he added.

Dr. Ebad said that keeping in view these problems Karachi operation was started in 2013 against terrorists, target killers, extortionists and kidnappers and its results are known to everyone now.

The people of Karachi have taken a sigh of relief while the whole nation has also appreciated the efforts of law enforcement agencies and due to present conducive atmosphere of the city investors from all over the world are coming here.

Work on CPEC going ahead swiftly: CM Balochistan

KARACHI: The work on China-Pakistan Economic Corridor (CPEC) is going ahead on a faster pace.

This was stated by the Chief Minister of Balochistan, Anwarullah Zehri here on Friday.

He was talking to media after the concluding session of the 15th Textile Asia Exhibition here.

Zehri said that the CPEC could change the destiny of Balochistan as well.

The Chief Minister further pointed out that for attracting investors, the Government of Balochistan is setting up tax free economic zones in the province. He pointed out that from Gwadar the construction work of the western and eastern routes, has commenced.

Zehri said that he assumed the charge three months ago and has undertaken four visits of Gwadar.
